To Whom this concerns

This letter serves as proof that UzuKhanye Dywili is an official Mama Flo Ambassador.

Mama Flo's mission is to fight period poverty by finding and providing short and long-term sustainable solutions.

As an ambassador, she is responsible for assisting the organisation and the community in the fight against period poverty. This includes spreading awareness on the issue, directing and assisting on where to find reliable information on periods and period poverty, assisting in fundraising, educational workshops, and at handouts.

If you require more information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards
